More About Taiwan

History

The name "Taiwan", meaning "terraced bay", was first used in 1430 by Admiral Cheng Ho of the Ming court. In the 16th century, the Portuguese named the island "Ilha Formosa" meaning "Beautiful Island". The name Formosa was used until the end of WWII.

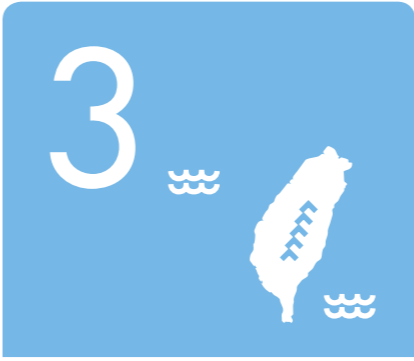

Situated between northern and southern Asia, Taiwan has long played a crucial role in trade and politics. Taiwan's location brought frequent invasions, but also provided the conditions needed for a modern, prosperous and democratic country.

Climate

In subtropical, northern Taiwan, the temperature during the cool, mild winters averages 18°C/64°F. The average temperature rises to 31°C/88°F during the hot, humid summers. Southern Taiwan has a tropical, marine climate with generally warm and relatively dry weather.

In the mountains, temperate conditions prevail. Snow may accumulate on some of the highest peaks, such as Yu Shan and Ho-Huan Shan. Rain may fall at any time, but the greatest amount usually falls from April to August. Typhoon season is from May to September.

Geography

Taiwan lies along the western edge of the Pacific Ocean, 193 km (120 miles) off the southeastern coast of mainland China. Taiwan has a land area of about 36,000 square km (14,400 square miles) and is nearly bisected by the Tropic of Cancer. The island is shaped somewhat like a sweet potato.

Taiwan has broad plains, rolling hills, and precipitous mountains that form the spine of the island. There are six peaks over 3,500m—the highest is Yu Shan at 3,952m—and more than 200 peaks over 3,000m. Swift rivers have carved steep gorges through the mountains. Taroko Gorge, with vertical rock walls hundreds of meters high, is a wonder of nature. Geothermal activity has produced many hot springs in mountains.

Due to the abundant rainfall and generally warm temperatures, vegetation grows rampantly in Taiwan, from lowland agricultural crops to all manner of plant life cloaking the hills and mountains. Due to its unique climate and geography, the flora and fauna of Taiwan are tremendously diverse, and many species are endemic to the island.

Culture

The culture of Taiwan is a blend of modern and traditional, national and international, unique and universal. Due to Taiwan's complex political history, the influences of indigenous culture, Confucianism, Japan, and Western civilization all can be seen at the same time.

The Japanese occupation of Taiwan from 1895 to 1945 influenced language, culture, and architecture. Visitors can still find a Japanese-style mansion and hear old Japanese songs emanating from nearby taverns.

Taiwan's aboriginal culture is unique and has started to flourish since the Ami chant "Jubilant Drinking Song" was sampled in a song to promote the 1996 Olympics. However, the dominant culture in Taiwan is still Chinese. Immigrants from mainland China, especially those who arrived in 1949, after civil war, brought Confucianism and Chinese culture to Taiwan. The National Palace Museum has an outstanding collection of 650,000 pieces of ancient Chinese artifacts brought from the Forbidden City, making it a major attraction for visitors. Visitors also will see ornate temples and traditional Chinese characters.

Tastes of Taiwan

In Taiwan, where it seems the people live to eat, it is said that there is a snack shop every three steps and a restaurant every five. Foods and dishes from around the world are available in Taiwan. However, Taiwan's native cuisine, which has gained worldwide attention, is unforgettable - try it just once and you will remember it forever. Memorable dishes include: Pearl Milk Tea, Danzai Noodles, Shrimp Pork Soup, Oyster Omelet, Meat Rice Tamales, Stinky Tofu, Taiwanese Meatballs, Coffin Sandwich, Veggie and Meat Wrap, Oyster Vermicelli, Steamed Sandwich, and Crushed Ice Dessert.

Living in Taiwan

1 Accommodations

Some Chinese learning centers provide on-campus dormitories. Each dormitory houses only men or only women. Typically, 4 to 6 students share a room. The number of beds is limited.

If dormitories are unavailable or you prefer a different living arrangement, off-campus apartments, including studios and flats, are available. Most Chinese learning centers provide information about local rentals on the internet. Depending on the accommodation's type, quality and location, rent ranges from NT$3,000 to 9000 per month. For further information please see the Tsuei Ma-Ma Foundation website.

Tsuei Ma-Ma Foundation:
www.tmm.org.tw/English/index.html

2 Services

Insurance

Foreigners with an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) who have resided in Taiwan for four months must enroll in the National Health Insurance (NHI) program at a local administrative office. Before they are eligible for the NHI program, students can purchase their own insurance or participate in a temporary health insurance program offered by the foreign students' office at their educational institution.

Foreigners, who have lost their residence status because they no longer hold a valid ARC or have left Taiwan permanently, will also lose their right to participate in the NHI program. They must withdraw their subscription to the NHI program through their group insurance applicant (their employers or local administration offices) and then return their NHI card to the group insurance applicant and pay the premiums in full before leaving Taiwan.

When traveling overseas for a short period of time, either on business or on vacation, and then returning to Taiwan with a valid ARC, foreigners must remain enrolled in the NHI program.

3 Work

International students who have attended school in Taiwan for two semesters or a language program for one year, and who have an excellent academic record, can work in Taiwan when one of the following applies:

- Events of a serious nature have affected their financial ability to support themselves or continue their education, and the student can provide evidence of such circumstances.
- An academic research institution at the student's school requires a foreign student to provide assistance in its work.
- The student needs to take part in an off-campus internship related to his or her field of study.

Further information about National Health Insurance (NHI):
It's a health insurance for all people in Taiwan since 1995. The main goals are to improve patients' access to health care by easing their financial burden and to make sure that no one would be forced into bankruptcy by a serious illness.
Website: www.nhi.gov.tw/english/index.asp

Bank Accounts

Most banks offer foreign currency exchange and bank services in NT dollars. Foreign students can open bank accounts with their passports and ARC cards. Individual who wants to open an account without an ARC card needs to get a universal identification number at the local police office.

Postage

Chunghwa Post, the postal service of Taiwan, provides international and domestic mail services to the public. There are over a thousand branches distributed all over the island, providing regular and express postal service. Foreign students can apply for a postal box at the nearest branch. Students who receive Taiwan Scholarship need to open an account at a post office of Chunghwa Post.

In addition, most convenience stores serve as pick up locations for international and domestic express services.

By Air

There are six domestic airlines providing services between major cities such as Taipei, Taichung, Tainan, Kaohsiung and Hualien. Prior reservations are always required.

By Highway Bus

Long distance highway bus services provided by private transportation companies are very popular. They have an extensive network and a frequent service schedule. Tickets are usually competitively priced and some bus companies even provide 24 hour service.

By Train

The railway network along the coastline is another economic option for traveling around Taiwan. There are four classes of passenger seats: Tze-chiang, Chu-kuang, Fu-hsing and economy. Traveling by train is recommended on public holidays because it can avoid the hustle and bustle of the long distance highway bus service. Advanced ticket reservations are recommended.

By Taiwan High Speed Rail (THSR)

If you would like to save time, THSR is another choice. While traveling from Taipei to Kaohsiung takes 5 hours by train and 6 hours by car, the THSR takes only 1.5 hours. Advanced reservations are recommended.

By Bus & Taxi

Each major city has its own bus system. Fares are inexpensive and service is frequent. Taxi fares start at NTD 70 (USD 2.1) and increase with the time and distance traveled. It is a good idea to have the name of your hotel or address written in Chinese when you travel by taxi.

By Motorcycle / Scooter & Bicycle

Motorcycles and scooters are very popular means of transportation. Most universities provide motorcycle/scooter parking around campus for students. Bicycles are widely used within campuses. Bicycle racks can be found throughout campuses.

By Passenger Car

In Taiwan, cars are driven on the right. Students with international driver licenses may drive in Taiwan. However, driving is not recommended for those who are unfamiliar with the unique road and traffic conditions in Taiwan. Traffic is heavy and car drivers must watch out for slow-moving pedestrians and bicyclists, fast-moving motorcycles and scooters, as well as other cars, buses and trucks. Drivers have to be extra cautious. International or foreign driver license holders can apply for ROC driver licenses at the local Motor Vehicles Office.

Test of Proficiency-Huayu

1 Organization Introduction

The Steering Committee for the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (SC-TOP) was established in November 2005 under the direction of the Ministry of Education of R.O.C.. The Committee aims to develop and promote an effective Chinese assessment system, mainly the Test of Proficiency-Huayu (TOP), for Chinese learners worldwide to assess their Chinese proficiency.

2 Test Introduction

The Test of Proficiency-Huayu (TOP) is a standardized language proficiency test especially designed for non-native speakers of Chinese. It aims to measure Chinese learners' listening and reading comprehension. TOP is divided into four different levels: Beginners, Basic, Intermediate and Advanced. Test takers can choose the test level most suitable for them by considering their learning experience in Chinese.

3 Target Test Taker

TOP is designed for non-native speakers of Chinese. Those who wish to know about their level of Chinese proficiency, or those who want to study, work or do business in Chinese speaking countries are welcome to take the test.

4 Test Content

The authentic materials used in TOP are extracted from materials in daily life, such as advertisements, public announcements, notices, letters, memos, time schedules, and weather broadcasts. In addition, these diversified texts are derived from a variety of fields, including literature, science, art, geography, and history.

5 Test Format

For Beginners

TOP for Beginners is divided into Listening and Reading comprehension sections. This 80-minute test consists of 80 multiple-choice test items each with three options.

Basic / Intermediate / Advanced

There are 120 multiple-choice test items divided into three sections: Listening, Vocabulary & Grammar and Reading. The test time is approximately 110 minutes.

6 Purpose of the TOP

TOP certificate can serve as a Chinese proficiency credential for:

- A. Applying for the "Taiwan Scholarship"
- B. Serving as a reference of Chinese subject proficiency for University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese Students.
- C. Applying for academic programs at colleges or universities in Taiwan.
- D. Serving as a job-required proof of Chinese language proficiency.

7 TOP Testing Overseas

To meet the demand of numerous international Chinese learners, the SC-TOP has started to provide overseas test services since 2006. Candidates can now choose to take the TOP test in Japan, Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Indonesia, Malaysia, U.S.A., Canada, Paraguay, U.K., France, Russia, Poland, and Australia. Also, the SC-TOP plans to increase test locations annually. The last 6 months have been a great adventure for me. Studying Mandarin here at the Fu Da language center (Fu Jen Catholic University) has been an exciting and interesting experience. Even though it is rather small, it has a lot to offer. My teachers are great and make learning this difficult language seem so easy. The campus is just beautiful and I made a lot of friends in no time at all! Last but not least, people here are always friendly and I can count on their help if I have any problem, whatsoever. Even though I'm in Taiwan and I learn a lot about the country itself, I also got to know so many people and different cultures from all over the world. I find everything I learned here valuable and I'm sure it will stay with me for the rest of my life.

Hualien, a place looks like mountains come down closely to the ocean. Everyday, I appreciate that I could study Chinese here. When I first come to Hualien, I just fell in love with the land and the people staying here. Originally I'm interested in food culture such as Chinese, Taiwanese, Hakka, Aboriginal food and etc. As Taiwan has different kinds of tribes and cultures, so it becomes a kind of ideal place for me to stay. Especially Hualien is an agricultural district; you can see many organic shops here. Also I feel people here are aware of the slow food and ecology. Furthermore I could learn a lot from students came from different cultures and I believe all the experiences here would help me someday in my future. I really hope to become fluent in Chinese and study more is my motivation at this moment.

I've come to the NCKU Chinese Language Centre to study two times now, and I feel it gives a unique opportunity to study the language that other facilities cannot provide. All classrooms are well-equipped to make the studying of the language an easy and interesting process. Not only does the teaching staff have a high degree of professionalism, in both instruction and language, but most importantly in my own experience, everyone in here displays warmth, kindness and friendliness so sincere, it would be difficult to believe of anyone but the Taiwanese people.

Amazing Experience in Taiwan

Feng Chia University

I made friends with lots of people whose English was minimal so I had to speak Chinese if I wanted to be understood. Don't speak your native tongue on a regular basis (even though your friends and family back home might start to pick on your English because suddenly you find your grammar deteriorating ~ lol). Since there are so many different nationalities in the classes the lessons are taught almost completely in Chinese, although the books are written in English and Chinese.

Feng Chia's teachers are much like their office staff, very friendly and will do whatever they can to help you. To date I haven't had a teacher that didn't sincerely want to help their students improve their Chinese. It's a bit like being back in elementary schools where the teachers care if you do your homework and ask you questions in class to make sure that you really understand. It's actually a really good method. If you work even moderately hard your Chinese will improve very quickly.

Highly Recommend Mandarin Study Opportunities

I highly recommend that foreigner visiting Taiwan consider taking Chinese Mandarin classes at Yilan City's Fo Guang University. Schedule options are free enough that one could take as many as 20 hours of regular classes or as little as 2-hour one-on-one sessions. At Fo Guang University one is given options as to how testing should take place, what materials are used in class, and what time best suits one's schedule. In addition to these benefits, the most important might be the environment of Yilan City itself. Unlike a big city like Taipei where a significant number of people can speak English, Yilan City offers foreigners limitless opportunities to practice engaging in the Mandarin language.

For more than 10 month now, I consider myself lucky to call Taipei my home, and I continue to enjoy every minute of it. Coming here, I was not only able to study Mandarin, find new friends, but also experience life from a different perspective. Looking at this place, it appears to me that our generations eagerness to embrace diversity, travel and experience new cultures, is a fundamental spirit that all Taiwanese share, regardless of age or social stratification. People I have never met before welcomed me with remarkable hospitality. With my new Taiwanese friends I would explore Taiwan's culture, go on delicious culinary adventures in night markets, hang out on the greenest campus I have ever been to, or travel the beautiful countryside of Taiwan. The teachers at NTU are truly the best in the world, and I find myself amazed with how quickly I picked up the language. It has been a fantastic experience.

My name is Anita Cherneva. I am Bulgarian, living in Spain since 2001. At present I am studying Chinese and I really enjoy writing Chinese characters. The last semesters, studied in Tamkang University, helped me a lot to improve my Chinese, thanks to the professional teachers and my exceptional classmates. TKU's reputation in general is super. The classes are small in size and the attention you get as a student is amazing. Teachers are outstanding, really caring about your personal success. There were several times I was met with difficult challenges, but each time the professors always did their best to help me. I feel really thankful for a teacher Ms Sun, such an extraordinary, professional and outstanding teacher and person! You get to know material which is getting difficult done decently is always a good feeling. The TPE's campus, where I study is the smallest, yet the location is great (very well situated in downtown). Students here are not only brilliant, but also warm and friendly. I love and enjoy my classes, though they are challenging. People in Taiwan are fantastic, They want to be your friend and will be. Do not think twice about going to TKU. Pick it over any school.

I have been studying at the Mandarin Training Center of NTNU for the past year and I have really enjoyed my time here in Taiwan! The people are genuinely friendly and I have made many new friends, both Taiwanese and also fellow international students from around the world. MTC has a great academic environment for international students, appealing to individuals with vastly different backgrounds and providing excellent language learning services as well as organizing student events. I've gone on several off campus excursions arranged by the MTC and each time I've gotten a new and fresh look at Taiwan, its people and its culture. This year has gone by so quickly and I still feel as though I have a lot more to learn and hope to come back to Taiwan soon to continue my island adventures!

Great Experiences to Study Chinese in Taiwan

Nationality India

My name is Rahul. I am from India. I arrived in Tainan (Taiwan) in Sep 2008 to study Chinese. My decision was influenced by many reasons. First of all being scholarship which was really generous on part of Chinese Language Center. Second being the people in Taiwan. They are extremely polite and helpful. They give you such a warm welcome (especially to foreigners) despite of the fact that majority of the people cannot converse in English but they don't leave a stone un turn to make you feel comfortable. Thirdly as I mentioned above that most of the people cannot converse in English it kinds of work in favor of you as it helps you to immerse in the language and culture completely and helps you to learn the language faster. If you appreciate History than Tainan has got plenty of it as it was the ancient capital of Taiwan. It has not only many ancient temples and forts but has many beautiful places to visit around. It even has two beautiful beaches to relax on weekends.
