GET PLUGGED INTO THE WORLD

Master of International Business

Fast track your career—for recent graduates

www.hult.edu

Jump start your career straight from university

Hult's Master of International Business degree (MIB) helps launch students' careers immediately after undergraduate studies with a one-year, intensive global business education. Students gain practical, hard business skills while learning how to think like a professional manager.

Meet the challenges of a global marketplace

A strong understanding of how the world is interconnected through finance, marketing, operations, technology, and strategy immediately gives students a head start when launching their careers. Hult's Master of International Business degree (MIB) helps students acquire practical business knowledge with a focus on international and cross-cultural understanding of the marketplace. This degree is particularly well suited for recent university graduates (business and non-business majors) who do not have extensive work experience. This degree is also appropriate for people who have work experience but seek to move from a domestic business into the international business realm.

A seamless path to a rewarding future

Hult's MIB has been specifically adapted to meet the needs of recent university graduates. Taught by the same faculty and following an abbreviated version of Hult's top-ranked MBA curriculum, many students graduate to exciting and rewarding careers at multinational companies. Some eventually choose to pursue an MBA. Because our MIB and MBA curricula are highly synchronized, MIB graduates can convert to an MBA degree after three years of work experience and an additional 24 credits, with no re-application requirements.

Curriculum combines hard skills with lessons in decision-making and strategy

Hult's MIB curriculum delivers an understanding of today's global marketplace. Initially, students focus on learning the hard skills in international finance, marketing, operations, and strategy. Subsequently, graduates also gain the analytical, problem-solving, and critical-thinking tools needed to make decisions in a rapidly evolving, cross-cultural world. Through a combination of case studies and lectures, students will also acquire presentation and communication skills necessary to work and excel in multinational settings and companies.

Taught by outstanding professors

Learn from professors who have real-world business experience, like Professor Tsorakidis—who is not only an expert in finance but also has run his own successful company. Or, dig into consumer behavior with Professor Hilditch who has over 30 years' teaching experience and is well versed in international strategy.

Welcome

Get Plugged into the World

Study in the world's most global city

The center of international finance and commerce, London is an excellent place to launch your career. Our campus has one of the most desirable addresses on Russell Square in the city's center. Hult provides you with a thoroughly modern learning environment, with a sophisticated campus and an extensive array of educational resources.

The "Knowledge Capital of the World"

Hult looks out over one of London's largest and most beautiful gardens—Russell Square—in the heart of Bloomsbury, the academic and literary heart of London that has been called the "Knowledge Capital of the World." Scholars and writers, poets and patrons, have long flocked to Bloomsbury for its vibrancy and seats of learning. Home to the largest concentration of universities in London, Bloomsbury hosts some of the world's most extensive libraries and academic facilities, like the British Library, the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, the British Museum, and University College London.

Hult London Campus

Our main campus consists of two large Georgian buildings that have been fully refurbished. Classrooms are fully equipped with the latest multimedia learning tools, and the building boasts the latest wireless computing facilities. The university's Hall of Residence at Byng Place is a five minute walk from the campus. The residence offers a television room, wireless Internet access throughout, and laundry facilities. All rooms are equipped with fridges and microwaves.

Central London—thousands of things to do within minutes of your doorstep

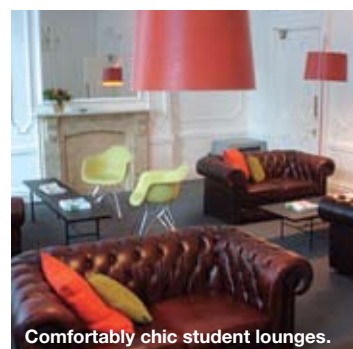

Hult's campus is just a few short minutes' walk from Tottenham Court Road and Oxford Street—trendy thoroughfares filled with boutiques, restaurants, cinemas, and bookstores. A little further afield, you will find the green of Regent's Park and the delights of Covent Garden, Piccadilly Circus, Soho, and Chinatown. Everything is readily accessible by foot or tube. And, you are within walking distance of St Pancras station and the Eurostar train.

The world's most influential city

London is the most influential commercial city in the world, according to a recent study commissioned by MasterCard. Thanks to the city's strong economy, vibrant financial markets, and government policies, London earned the top spot in the Centers of Commerce Index in 2008. The fact that one-fifth of Europe's largest companies are based in London makes this city an excellent launch pad for your further studies and career.

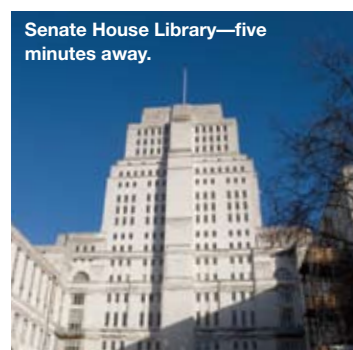

The Hall of Residence is a five-minute walk from the campus.

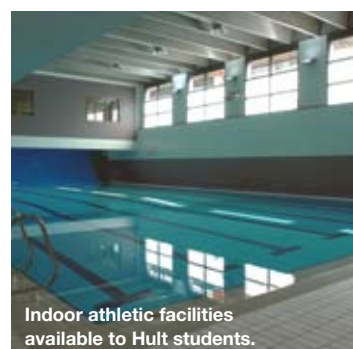

Comfortably chic student lounges.

Close to London's best sights, shops, and nightlife.

Senate House Library—five minutes away.

Indoor athletic facilities available to Hult students.
